30 ATHLETES' REPRESENTATIVES AND MEETING PROMOTERS

30.1 BA shall specifically prescribe rules, regulations and guidelines for the control, protection and regulation of athletes' representatives and meeting promoters.

30.2 An annual fee, decided by the BA Board, shall be payable by Athletes Representatives.

30.3 A contract between an athlete and an Athletes' Representative is of no force effect unless the Athletes' Representative is registered with BA and such contract has been endorsed by BA.

30.4 No athlete will be granted BA's consent to use an Athletes' Representative, and no Athletes' Representative shall be authorised, unless a written contract exists between the athlete and his/her Representative which contains the minimum terms set out in the IAAF Regulations concerning Federation/Athletes' Representatives.

30.5 No meeting promoter may organise an event of athletics without the express permission of BA.

30.6 Athletes' Representatives are to be licensed by ASA and as a pre-requisite to becoming so licensed, all Athletes' Representatives are required to commit themselves to observe faithfully all ASA's Rules and Regulations and its Constitution. Failure so to commit them will result in ASA refusing to give the required endorsement to the contracts referred to in the Clauses above.

31 RULES AND REGULATIONS

31.1 In addition to the provisions of the constitution the Board shall issue such rules and regulations as may be required for the smooth running of the affairs of BA.

31.2 Such rules and regulations may be issued or amended only by:

- 31.2.1 an Annual General Meeting; or
- 31.2.2 a Special General Meeting convened for this purpose.

31.3 The Board shall be the interpreter of the BA Rules. Where no provision exists in the Rules for any particular matter to be dealt with, the ASA Constitution and/or Rules and/or Guidelines shall apply and be invoked mutatis mutandis. All matters not provided for under ASA and BA Rules shall be decided by the Board. Decisions in matters of legislation shall become operative only after the approval of the Annual General Meeting has been given.

31.4 The Domicilium Rule

- 31.4.1 A club shall only be a member of one ASA province wherein the club's offices are located.
- 31.4.2 An athlete shall only represent the ASA province wherein he/she is domicile.
- 31.4.3 An athlete shall only be a member of a club if the athlete and the club are both domicile in the same ASA province.
- 31.4.4 With the exception of a National/Provincial Athlete, an athlete shall only be a member of a club if the athlete and the club are both domicile in the same ASA province and the same town.
- 31.4.5 A "Provincial Athlete" may belong to a club of his/her choice anywhere within the borders of BA.
- 31.4.6 No athlete may relocate from one province to another or from one club to another, without being in possession of a written clearance certificate from the former province or club, entitling the athlete to compete in the new province. Failure to obtain such a clearance certificate shall render the athlete ineligible to compete in the new province or club.
- 31.4.7 Unless otherwise stipulated by the Board, the principle of one club per town or municipal area, as stipulated in the Merger Schedule, applies.
- 31.4.8 The proviso of 31.7.7 does not apply to the athletics clubs of tertiary institutions and state institutions such as the Correctional Services and the Defence Force.
- 31.4.9 The transfer procedure of an athlete from one club to another will take place in accordance with Schedule G.

31.5 An athlete may communicate directly with the office of ASA only in exceptional cases where he has not received cooperation both from his/her club and his/her province.

31.6 Officers of BA will serve on the Board, Commission and Committees of BA only in an ex-officio capacity.

31.7 Amendments to the Constitution

31.7.1 Non-Technical Rules

- 31.7.2 Non-technical clauses are clauses that do not relate to technical rules.

31.7.2.1 A proposal to amend the Constitution shall be submitted to the Secretary by a Member, at least 45 days prior to the AGM at which it is to be considered. All proposals shall be sent by the General Secretary to all members at least 30 days before the AGM. Amendments submitted by the BA Board, Commissions and Committees, will not be considered;

- 31.7.2.2 To be accepted, any such proposals must obtain two thirds of the votes cast, which two-thirds must also represent at least one-half of the aggregate voting power of all Members of BA (a special majority).
- 31.7.2.3 Any subsequent necessary alterations to the wording of statutes passed by the AGM can only be made by the President (or a Board Member nominated by him/her for this purpose), or by the CEO, and this provided that no material change to the decision of the AGM is made.
- 31.7.2.4 Non-technical amendments to the Constitution may only be submitted by the Clubs, the Associate Members and the Board.

31.7.3 Technical Rules

- 31.7.3.1 A proposal (unless this is proposed by the Board, Committees, Commissions) to amend any technical rule, such as changes to the technical standards, shall be submitted to the General Secretary at least three months prior to the AGM at which it is considered. A proposal to amend a technical rule may only be submitted by member clubs, or the Board or a member of the Board or a Commission or any standing Committee.
- 31.7.3.2 Except in exceptional circumstances, amendments to the technical rules will only be considered after approval by the Commission concerned.
- 31.7.3.3 A report, containing the recommendations of the Technical Committee, and the Commission concerned shall be circulated to all Members at least three months before each AGM.
- 31.7.3.4 Where the Board has exercised its power to amend a technical rule or any other rule as an urgent matter, such amendment must also be reported to and confirmed by the next AGM.
- 31.7.3.5 When an amendment to a technical rule adopted by AGM is decided upon by the AGM, a fixed date for the operation of the amendment must be stated, such date to allow adequate time for all members to put into operation simultaneously.
- 31.7.3.6 Any subsequent necessary alterations to the wording of technical rules passed by Board can only be made by the Chairperson of the Technical Committee (or by a member of the Technical Committee nominated by him/her for this purpose) or by the CEO and this provided no material change to the decision of AGM is made.

31.8 Any amendment of the rules and regulations shall be entered in the minutes of the particular meeting at which such amendments have been passed. If the minutes have been duly circulated, as provided for in the constitution, this shall be deemed sufficient notice of such amendments.

31.9 No rule or regulation may be in conflict with the constitution.

31.10 All members of BA, the clubs, associations or bodies or persons affiliated to them shall:

- 31.10.1 be obligated to observe and accept the rules and regulations of BA;
 - 31.10.2 furnish any information required by the Board in connection with any matters falling within the jurisdiction of members' activities;
 - 31.10.3 not introduce any amendments or additions, which are incompatible with the rules and regulations of BA.
 - 31.10.4 not communicate directly with SASCOC, IAAF, CAA, SRSA, ASA other than through the medium of BA.
- 31.11 To the extent to which the rules of the IAAF, ASA and any amendments to such rules are applicable to BA, they shall likewise apply to all activities conducted under the auspices of BA.
- 31.12 The office of BA shall communicate with a club only through the club's registered (with BA) office. The office will not officially communicate directly with individuals, athletes or office bearers of a club, except through the office of the club and vice versa, except in cases where there is a lack of co-operation.
- 31.13 BA reserves the right, at its own discretion, to communicate with any of its members (including athletes, clubs, officers and office bearers of its members) as it deems necessary.
- 31.14 BA has concurrent jurisdiction over all its members (including athletes, clubs, and officers of all its members).
- 31.14.1 In terms of this jurisdiction, BA has the right to take any appropriate disciplinary action against any of its members (including athletes, clubs and officers of its members).
- 31.15 BA shall only recognize constitutions of members which (constitutions) have been approved by BA.
- 31.16 All the structures and substructures of BA and its members shall reflect the demographics of our country, and shall be gender sensitive.
- 31.17 All club members of BA shall hold club championships similar to those held by BA.
- 31.18 In order to facilitate transformation the clubs of BA shall subscribe to the following code:
- 31.18.1 All club structures and substructures shall guarantee equal representation for people from former establishment and non- establishment sectors.
 - 31.18.2 This code shall be enshrined in the club member's constitution.
 - 31.18.3 This code shall remain a temporary measure to ensure that transformation is irreversible.
 - 31.18.4 The member province shall remove the provisions of this code from its constitution only when athletics in the club shall have been fully transformed.
 - 31.18.5 Athletics shall be deemed to be fully transformed in the club as and when a reasonable balance exists between the number of members in the previously disadvantaged townships and/or villages, and the number of members in the town/city suburbs.
 - 31.18.6 The provisions of this code shall be removed from the member's constitution only with BA's written approval.
 - 31.18.7 All provincial members of ASA shall hold provincial championships similar to those held by ASA.

31.19 Provincial Super club

- 31.19.1 BA shall determine the criteria/conditions to be met by athletes who would like to be members of a provincial super club.
- 31.19.2 Membership of the super club shall not be made compulsory.
- 31.19.3 Members of the provincial super club may reside in any municipal district of their choice.
- 31.19.4 The provincial super club will operate like any other club save it will draw its membership provincially.
- 31.19.5 At BA championships, members of the provincial super club shall represent clubs wherein they are domicile.

32 INTERPRETATION

- 32.1 Decisions of the Council concerning the validity of any provision of this Constitution shall be final and binding.
- 32.2 Difficulties concerning situations not provided for in the Constitution shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary BA and shall be investigated and commented upon by the Board before it is placed on the agenda of the next Council meeting. The decision of the Council shall be final and binding.
- 32.3 This constitution is subject to the interpretation of the Transformation Document of 26 February 1997 compiled by Advocate Norman Arendse in his capacity as Commissioner appointed by the National Sport Council, and any constitutional change should not be in conflict with this Transformation Document.
- 32.4 This constitution is also subject to the Merger Process following the implementation of the Transformation Document

33 DISPUTES

- 34 The Arbitration Forum of the Western Cape Provincial Government will deal with all disputes related to this constitution. A dispute will only be declared after all internal remedial process within the Boland Athletics Constitution as been applied, and no satisfactory outcome has been achieved by a special majority of all parties involved.
 - 34.1 A reference shall not be accepted by the Arbitration Foundation of South Africa (AFSA) until it is determined: -
 - 34.1.1 that a dispute exists or is declared, and
 - 34.1.2 that all remedies have been exhausted under BA and ASA's Constitution, to resolve the dispute.
 - 34.2 Should any dispute arise which involves the Federation, its officials, any clubs affiliated with the Federation, and any officials, athletes or members who are subject to the rules of this constitution, pertaining to any matter arising from the interpretation or implementation of the constitution, or arising from the sports governed by this constitution, then such dispute shall be referred to the Arbitration Forum of the Western Cape Provincial Government, to be dealt with in accordance with the rules of that forum. Disciplinary processes will take place as indicated in Schedule I.
