Contact Tracing and suspected positive cases Protocol

Pre-Event (competition or road race)

Any entr ee that "failed" the health screening at the start of the event will not be allowed in the stadium (track and field) or enter the race (road race). They will be moved to the clearly marked isolated area. This area will be separate from the competition medical room. The entr ee will be referred to a health practitioner or a health authority. All people that the affected person had come into contact with, i.e. travelled to the race or same household, will not be allowed to partake and also be referred to the health authority. Representatives of the health authority will, where possible, be present at the screening.

Since the athletic competition will only last for a few hours and all entrees screened at the start, the biggest risk will be the post event. Therefore, the following steps will be followed.

Post Event:

Register will be kept of all athletes, officials, coaches, media and stadium staff. The register will be kept for 6 months.

- Register will reflect name, address, ID number, telephone (cell) number. Those from outside the city where the event will be hosted, will need to provide detail of health practitioner or local health authority.

All athletes, officials, coaches must undertake to monitor symptoms post event up to 14 days and if symptoms develop must contact the Covid compliance officer of the specific event (track and field) or race (road, cross or trail run).

- The participant should self isolate and get tested.
- All other participants will be informed and advised to self monitor.
- In addition, a full list of other personal contacts post the event or race or places visited should be supplied and made available to the local health authority for tracing and monitoring.

Any person who shows symptoms should get tested and self isolated. The test results should be made available. If negative, the athlete can resume activity, but if tested positive should remain in isolation for at least 14 days and be retested and show a negative result before taking part in any other event under the auspices of Athletics South Africa.
